WEDNESDAY MORNING, NOV. 23, 1864.

News of To-Day.

Harvests have been gathered in the interior of Georgia, and Sherman's army will meet with abundance for its subsistence on the route. There are but few rebel troops now on the line of his march, and the enemy will find no comfort or consolation left them on the road he may travel, including Atlanta and the road from there to Chattanooga. His troops are splendidly equipped and provisioned. All are imbued with his own spirit, and he has all the men he wants. The 14th corps is the rear guard. Rebel papers report an immense fleet of transports at Mobile Bay.

Hood's entire force is at Tuscumbia and Florence, Alabama, closely watched by Thomas, with a sufficient force to prevent advance into Tennessee.

The ports of Norfolk, Pensacola and Fernandina are to become open to commercial relations on the first of December.

A bill introduced into the Georgia Senate recommending the Confederate Government to make peace offers, was unanimously voted down.

The enemy had attempted to force our lines in Butler's front, at Dutch Gap, and was completely repulsed.

Gold on the 20th was 220 in New York. The steamer Brother Jonathan arrived yesterday.

The Dalles.

There is no place in Oregon, no business point whose importance in the future is more assured, than the Dalles. Its situation is such that even if it does not command the entire trade it aims to, still, the whole country now supplied by the Columbia river must, at least, pay its tribute in passing through; and being, as it is, the key to the whole upper country, every traveler stops there, and every ton of freight has to be reshipped.

Familiar as we are with the Dalles, and with each road leading to the mines, we believe the direct road, via Canyon City, will, when developed by proper enterprize, prove the shortest and most available route to Owyhee, and when once traveled by heavy trains and teams, will commence a new era in the history of that place. There must be important points east of the mountains, and the Dalles is welcome to all the success it can command.

There must be an important point this side of the mountains. Portland commands that position, and intends to spare no effort in the future to retain it. She has striven for it, and has won it. She has no intention to abandon it.

There is no necessity for rivalry—at least, unpleasant rivalry—between Portland and the Dalles. We think Portland the proper place for a mint, but are willing to leave the result to be decided by the voices of those most interested, while we shall spare no honorable effort to obtain it.

A well-conducted press, is a most desirable feature in any important place, and the time has certainly come when the Dalles deserves to have a reliable and respectable journal published in her midst. She has long enough been disgraced by the publication of a scurrilous sheet, that is prostituted to the vilest purposes of indiscriminate and personal abuse.

The loathsome creature who publishes the Mountaineer commands the respect of no respectable person in that place, and has for years been making a pretence of devotion to the Union cause, when, from our own personal knowledge, we judged him to be not only opposed to its principles, but a direct sympathizer with Southern treason. Character he does not possess, and the the man does not live so vile that his word can injure him. Whether he be an escaped convict from Maryland, as has been often charged, or is merely to be judged by his infamous conduct in our own State, he is certainly as despicable a thing as can well have a beastly existence, and not be a mere as well as an actual brute. During the past six months, this man, who uses a press he never expects to pay for, and has an office rent free, (our authority is the owner of the house,) who is irresponsible to the last degree, has turned his venom on the Judge of the Fifth Judicial District, the U. S. District Judge—a candidate for Elector on the ticket he pretends to support—the only member of the Legislature from Wasco county who was of any especial use to his constituents, and several others.

It was Macaulay who, in his essay on Barriere, summed up the character of the man—his vileness, his perfidy, and his hate—as only he could command words to use, winding up with this culminating scorn: "He hated England, and such as he was let all who hate her be."

These is no one of those who have been assailed by this vile calumniator—in each case men whose reputation is to his as the air of May to the whisky perfume of his tainted breath—that cannot afford to ignore his assaults; to answer all by simply pointing the finger of ineffable scorn, and quoting—"Such as he is, may all who hate us be."

In entering upon a new career, we feel a disposition to dignify the press with every attribute of fairness toward friend and foe, but there is a limit to human endurance. Our denunciations at the present time are as unavoidable as they are deserved.

We are glad to believe, from negotiations now in progress, that the people of the Dalles will soon be blessed with a journal calculated to advance instead of detract from their interests.

A SECRET MEETING.—Somebody tells us of a secret meeting of Democrats on upper Molalla a few days since.

We hardly think they intend to do anything desperate this winter; [illegible] they only wanted to draw around the [illegible] together, and be alone by themselves while weeping their secret grief.

"McCLELLAN IS DEAD."—We [illegible] some verses [illegible] with the above title, but may not publish them, as everybody knows it, and it might hurt the [illegible] feelings [illegible].

GREEN RIVER.—New [illegible] with rich and extensive diggings, are said to have been discovered on Green river, where there is [illegible] pay, and abundance of wood and water.

Which was the greatest Tory State? New Jersey. Which of the Free States was last to abolish slavery? New Jersey. What State went for Little Mac? New Jersey.

THE SITUATION.—It is a noticeable fact that the election of Mr. Lincoln has affected the money market favorably. The financial [illegible] in England has operated against us [illegible] and tended to keep the price of gold at a high figure, but since his election gold has materially declined in price, in spite of this untoward circumstance. We already hear rumors of peace as not far distant. We see indications that the President intends to use all the means in his power to effect that most desirable end at the [illegible] opportunity, and it is [illegible] swords will [illegible] shares and the spears into pruning hooks. [illegible] cannot fail at the worst, and the Southern people must see that sooner or later the time will come when they must yield. Already their prominent journals accept the election as the knell of their hopes, and [illegible] "extermination or victory," the last they cannot have. Their armies melt away and their resources fail them. Their bravest stain every battle-field with their best life blood, and the impending hour when they must yield comes near. The late election is the hand writing on the wall that appalls them, and they view in despair the Federal forces strengthening and the national finances still vigorous and well supplied by a loyal people.

Sherman, unhindered, is now marching through the heart of the rebel States, and this fact alarms the stoutest heart that fights for the Confederacy.

IDAHO ITEMS.—From a friend just arrived from the upper country, we gather the following items:

The impetus given to mining operations by the fall immigration from the East is marked. Hill and creek diggings, before deemed impracticable, or comparatively worthless, have been made to yield largely.

Lack of water drove scores who owned rich ground to prospecting, and rich placers have been discovered in consequence, in Boise basin.

Volcano District, in Alturas county, is thought to be very rich in quartz. The Malad will furnish abundance of water power, and timber is plentiful some five to fourteen miles distant.

A company from St. Clair county Illinois, is said to have lately brought a quartz mill to Rocky Bar, and will soon be at work.

WHAT A SUBSCRIBER THINKS.—"I feel a great interest in any good Union paper—yours in particular—and I assure you that I shall do all in my power to increase your circulation. 'Won't you renew your subscription to the OREGONIAN?' said I, to-day, to one who has taken it through the campaign. 'Certainly I will,' was the reply, 'I would not be without it for ten dollars a year.'"

We are striving to merit the approbation and support of all sections of this State, and such testimony as this is most acceptable to us, and especially appreciated when, like the foregoing, it is accompanied by a handsome addition to our subscription list.

IN the villages of Antignano, Ardenza and [illegible] Porte, which stand on the same hill, in the province of Naples, says the Nazione of Florence, reside about [illegible] men and women, who, from a singular religious fanaticism, have made a vow never to speak. For some years past they have maintained silence. A tradesman—a grocer—is mentioned, who carries on his business without uttering a word. Should a customer enter his shop, he weighs and sells. If the buyer has any observation to make, he listens, and does as he is requested. Besides, his wife speaks for him, and most ungrudgingly.

Two wealthy young men of Farmington, New York, stepped over into Canada just before the 6th of September, to await the eventualities of the draft. One of them was drawn, and set about hiring a Canadian substitute. He engaged his man, and was ready to leave with him, when the authorities, who had been apprised of the proceedings, arrested him on the charge of violating their law against foreign enlistments. He was tried, found guilty, and sentenced to a term of 18 years' imprisonment.

THE sixteen-wheeled railroad car, intended for the President's use, is finished, and is awaiting orders at Alexandria. It is the most elegant thing of the kind ever seen in this country. Its total cost was about $30,000. It has sleeping apartments, parlor, and a Secretary's office. It is to be presented to our Chief Magistrate and to be used by himself and his successors.

IMMEDIATELY upon entering Atlanta, Colonel Walker, who was in command of the column, sent the following dispatch to Gen. Geary: "General. We have possession of the town. The Second and Third divisions entered together. The flag of the Third Brigade will be the first to float over the city. Glory Hallelujah! This elects Abraham Lincoln."

A FAMOUS swimming match recently took place in the British Channel between Mr. Herschell, of the French navy, and Captain Saunders, an Englishman. The course was five measured miles at sea, with rather a high sea running. The Frenchman took the lead at first, and kept it up for a long time; but was ultimately passed by Captain Saunders. The distance was accomplished by the winner in one hour and fifty-six minutes and twenty-eight seconds.

IN Boston a widow has sued the estate of a deceased gentleman, who was engaged but never married to her, for the sum of $10,000, the amount of a promissory note, payable at the death of the maker, which he gave her as a present, but afterwards took back to "keep it safely" for her.

THE present President of the Republic of Liberia, the Hon. Daniel Bashiell Warner, is of unmixed African blood. He is an able statesman, an eloquent speaker and a graceful writer. He is the third President of the young Republic, which is now seventeen years old.

AS LONG as Irishmen think and talk and act and vote [illegible] Copperhead organs they are lauded by them, but no longer. The San Francisco Democratic Press speaks of the members of the Irish [illegible] Johnson Club of that city as "miserable God forsaken creatures."

MISS [illegible] reads Shakspeare thus: "[illegible] the uses of advertisements." We wish all business men would see it in that light. There would be fewer newspaper and merchant [illegible].

MISS [illegible] SEDGWICK, sister of the late Maj. Gen. Sedgwick, has sent to Gov. Buckingham, of Connecticut, the sword of her brother, that it may be presented to the State through the next Legislature.

THE [illegible] House, corner of Sansome and California streets, San Francisco, has been purchased by [illegible] for the sum of [illegible] to be used for a banking-house.

WE are informed [illegible] of building [illegible] with water-tight compartments, that [illegible] been familiar with this method of [illegible].

Up to the 1st of October, [illegible] immigrants had arrived at the port of New York from Europe this year.

SHERIDAN [illegible].—A [illegible] officer with General Sheridan, writing from Winchester, reports that one of our Generals, who [illegible] saw the rebel line break and run at Fisher's Hill, exclaimed, "There goes another plank out of the Chicago Platform."—Boston Transcript.

DATES TO NOVEMBER 22.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—An Atlanta letter of the 15th contains the reported atrocities towards Union prisoners at Andersonville.

There are reports of a harvest in the interior of Georgia having been gathered this season, which will afford our army an abundant subsistence.

There are a few rebel soldiers in the interior. The only troops at Atlanta was [illegible] corps.

The [illegible] of the 15th says: All arsenals, foundries, rolling stock in Atlanta and all factories, mills, foundries, from Chattanooga to Atlanta were burned and destroyed, railways torn up and [illegible] brought to the rear. Atlanta is no longer of military importance. The country for miles around is wasted beyond the possibility of service to the rebels.

Sherman's army moved from Kingston on Monday. He issued an order telling the troops they were about to pass through a country heretofore uninterrupted by either army. They were expected to subsist on the country, and to take all the horses within reach. The 14th corps is his rear guard.

The rebel papers report the arrival of an immense fleet of transports at Mobile Bay.

BUFFALO, Nov. 20.—Brig. Gen. Baird, Chief of Artillery, of Sherman's corps, arrived yesterday seriously ill. He left Sherman on the 12th at Kingston. He says Sherman has all the men he wants. The men all received eight months' pay and an outfit especially adapted for a hard and rapid winter campaign. The morale of the troops is unequalled. The genius and vigor of Sherman will carry the army triumphantly through its work.

On Monday night last Hood's entire force, including Forrest's cavalry, were in the immediate vicinity of Tuscumbia and Florence, Alabama, watched by the troops under Thomas, of such strength as will render the invasion of Tennessee impossible and the withdrawal of Hood difficult.

The Post says the President has issued a proclamation opening the ports of Norfolk, Va., and Fernandina and Pensacola, Fla., for commercial relations, excepting persons and things contraband of war, after December 1st.

NEW YORK, Nov. 20.—A bill was introduced in the Georgia Legislature, recommending the Confederate Government to make peace offers, but it was unanimously voted down.

An arrival from City Point brings information that on Thursday heavy firing was heard in Butler's front at Dutch Gap, occasioned by the rebels attempting to force our picket lines. They were completely repulsed.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—Gold on the 20th was quoted at 220. The steamer Brother Jonathan arrived to-day.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—Dispatches received yesterday say gold on Saturday evening sold at 218.

Heavy offerings of greenbacks to-day forced the market down to 46½, selling at 47.

At two o'clock to-morrow Newman, of the Occidental Market, wheels Story, of the same market, through Montgomery street, in a wheelbarrow, on a bet against 12,000 majority for Lincoln in California.

Letter from Vancouver.

VANCOUVER, W. T., Nov. 22.

EDITOR OREGONIAN:

Information has just been received here that Pelini, the war chief of the Snake Indians, has surrendered himself to the commandant at Fort Klamath. He says that he is tired of war, and desires to remain at peace with the whites forever. Mr. Huntington, Superintendent of Indian affairs invited the Snakes to sit in council [illegible] 12—not enough to represent the tribe—responded. This surrender is the natural result of the operations of the troops in the Indian country during the past summer. The anxiety of the Indians to avoid a fight left them no time to gather food, and the only alternative of Pelini was to surrender or starve, and the latter was the least to his liking.

A GALLANT CHARGE.—The Cincinnati Gazette, says the charge of Colonel Este's brigade at Jonesboro was one of those deeds which, in the crises of battle, decide their fate in a few moments and may win victory from odds and adversity. When troops are tried by such an emergency, and respond in such a manner, it approves all its previous training. Colonel Este's brigade was composed of the Fourteenth and Thirty-eighth Ohio, the Tenth Kentucky and Seventy-fourth Indiana Regiments. The regular brigade had fallen back with heavy loss from an attempt to storm the rebel earthworks. Este's brigade was ordered to fix bayonets for the charge. The danger and work to be done were fully exhibited to the men in the shattered brigade which had just made the attempt, in the dead and wounded who strewed the ground, and in the successive lines of the works of the enemy and their yells of triumph. They had to march across an open country to storm a line of earthworks in the edge of the woods, with a second line visible in the rear. Charging through a fire which mowed down one-third of their number, they stormed the first line of earthworks, and after a hand-to-hand fight with the bayonet, in which many of both sides fell pierced by this weapon, they held this and then carried another line in the same manner. The brigade took nearly its own number in prisoners, including a Colonel in command of a Brigade, a Lieutenant Colonel, two stand of colors and four pieces of artillery.

AN ENGLISHMAN UPON THE ENGLISH.—The following indignant hit at his own countrymen by Ruskin, is about as cruelly cutting as though it had been a Yankee who had said it. The best feature of it is that it is all true. He says:

"We English, as a nation, know not, and care not to know, a single broad and basic principle of human justice. We have only our instincts to guide us. We will take care of our families and our own pockets; and we are characterized in our present phase of enlightenment mainly by rage in speculation, lavish expenditure on suspicion or panic, generosity where generosity is useless, anxiety for the souls of the savages, regardless of those of civilized nations, enthusiasm for liberation of blacks, apathy to enslavement of whites, proper horror for regicide, polite respect for [illegible], sympathy for those whom we can no longer serve, and reverence for the dead whom we ourselves delivered to death."

THE NAVAL COMMAND ON JAMES RIVER.—The Washington Republican of October 12th, says:

"We understand, by authority, some days since that Rear Admiral Farragut was relieved of his command in the Gulf and ordered to assume command of the North Atlantic Blockading Squadron. We regret to announce that the condition of Admiral Farragut's health was such, at the time of receiving the order, as to preclude the possibility of his complying with it at once. The order was then withdrawn, and Rear Admiral Porter, of the Mississippi Squadron, and Rear Admiral Lee, of the North Atlantic Blockading Squadron, were ordered to exchange commands. Admiral Porter has already reached the James river and assumed command in those waters, and Rear Admiral Lee has gone to the Mississippi to take command of the squadron there."

PRESIDENT [illegible].—This morning, when Oallahan, the newly [illegible] President of the Gold Hill [illegible], stepped up to vote, the following scene occurred:

[illegible]—"I challenge that vote."
Oallahan—"On what ground?"
[illegible]—"Swear him."
Oallahan was sworn.
Inspector—"How long have you been in this Territory and State, Oallahan?"
Oallahan—"[illegible] months."
Inspector—"Stand aside, Oallahan."
[illegible]—Gold Hill [illegible]

PRESIDENTIAL [illegible].—Many of the Copperheads declared their intention to leave the State and emigrate to foreign countries in case Lincoln were elected. We may therefore look for a large passenger list on the next outgoing steamer. [illegible]—S. F. Bulletin.

One of the California subscribers has sent us a five dollar gold piece, which pays his subscription to December 1, 1869. We took a long look at the little coin, but don't think it safe to keep it.—Portland, Me., Transcript.

Multnomah County Bible Society.

A few words concerning the facts collected by the Rev. Mr. Royal while acting as colporteur during the past summer, might not be uninteresting to the readers of the OREGONIAN.

During the month of May last, the Executive Committee of the Multnomah County Bible Society engaged the services of the Rev. Wm. Royal to canvass the city and supply the destitute families with the word of God. He immediately commenced his labors, and [illegible] the work was faithfully performed. Every family in the city was visited, and proper care was taken to ascertain the following facts:

[illegible]

The canvassing was completed the latter part of [illegible]. Since that time a large number of persons have moved into the city, [illegible] but the great majority to remain [illegible].

Meeting of the Common Council.—The regular weekly meeting of the Common Council was held at the Council Chamber at seven o'clock last evening.

Mayor Failing was not present and Councilman Frazar occupied the Chair.

The following members were present—Councilmen Bennett, Cook, Frazar, Gruber, Hargren, Hoffman, McCraken.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the Clerk and approved by the Council.

Petition of A. C. R. Shaw for right to use a portion of certain streets for building operations granted.

Petition of sundry citizens, numbering over 100, restraining the running at large of cattle in the streets of the city, was referred to the Committee on health and police.

The Committee on ways and means reported favorably on the proposition of Messrs. McCormick & Bushwiler, to publish the new Charter in connection with the City Directory for 1865, which was adopted.

The judiciary committee reported for the [illegible] line.

City Surveyor Burrage recommended the construction of a sewer in Montgomery street, instead of Mill street, as formerly considered. During the session ordinances authorizing the construction of the same, in accordance with the report, and appropriating money to defray the expenses, were passed.

Petition of John Donovan for commutation of license, was taken up and granted.

An ordinance appropriating money for services of Judge M. P. Deady, in revising City Charter, passed the second reading.

A resolution requesting City Assessor Going to return the assessment roll completed, at the next regular meeting of the Council, was adopted.

A resolution requesting the committee on health and police to report an ordinance to prevent the obstruction of cross-walks and side-walks by teams, drays and trucks, was adopted.

Adjourned.

Street Work.—Streets, pavements, sewers and side-walks are matters which—the mention of which—cannot be out of place. In Washington City it is proposed to build crossings of perforated iron plates, the plates having holes in them to carry down the slops of walking. Under these crossings the sewers will be constructed in the form of a web throughout the entire city. The authorities of St. Louis and Chicago have decided that wood pavement is better than stone, and more durable than any other material used for the purpose in those cities. The method of construction is about as follows: Lay down flooring of one inch board, on a bed of sand, coat the floor with asphaltum, stand on end blocks of wood six inches thick by nine inches long, in rows one inch apart, divided by strips of boards, set across the street. The open narrow places are filled with asphaltum, and we have assurance from some of our own citizens who have seen the work, that there can be no finer streets in the world than those in Chicago, made after this style. There are six miles of such pavement in that city, which, after six years of constant wear, are found to be nearly as perfect as when laid down. The experiment is worth a trial in Portland. In Sacramento during the past season, nearly twenty-five miles of side-walk have been constructed, and the authorities there have determined that the city shall be supplied with new and substantial walks. In San Francisco the inhabitants are blessed with the finest carriage-roads, lighted by night, and excellent at all times, leading to their principal suburbs, that are free and open to the public. The street railroads there—which include about forty miles of single track—have been constructed at a stupendous expense, and the advantages they are to the city it is impossible to estimate; unsightly sand hills have been cut through and leveled before them, and fine graded and McAdamized roads constructed for their accommodation, and these roads are all free. Before their construction there was not a free road anywhere in the vicinity, and citizens could not even go out to Lone Mountain to bury the dead, or lay a rose on the grave of the dear departed, without a heavy extra tax, in the shape of toll. What has Portland done? While our population has been steadily increasing, her streets are in the same bad condition they were five years ago. With the possible exception of about 300 feet our streets are characterized with the same elegant variety of pavements which has so long been the marked peculiarity of this city. Thus: one side of the street is plank, and the other gravel or stone; the latter is usually about one foot lower than the first and at crossings we find convenient embankments, which hold the water and make the stone and gravel sections like lakelets of slush, which in a pleasant day emits an aroma stronger than is agreeable. It also affords a good opportunity for the owners of the plank sections to dispose of their mud by simply shoving it over on the gravel. But we live in hope that the present fall and winter will be the last for such disgustingly filthy and detestable streets as we are now compelled to endure.

Trial of Bledsoe.—The Circuit Court Room was densely packed yesterday at the continuance of the trial of Bledsoe, for the murder of Cavin. The evidence was all taken, the Attorneys finished their summing up, and the case was submitted to the jury at 6 o'clock P. M. After a short deliberation their verdict was agreed upon, and Court re-assembled to hear the verdict, which was given "Guilty of murder in the second degree." Hon. J. H. Mitchell, counsel for the defense, immediately entered a motion to set aside the verdict and asked for a new trial. Prisoner was remanded to the custody of the Sheriff and Court adjourned to meet at 10 o'clock A. M. to-day.

Theatrical.—Last evening Henry VIII was performed to an excellent house. Mrs. Hayne is a great favorite with our play goers, and while her voice does not retain the tone and fullness for which she has been distinguished in younger years, still, the naturalness of her acting makes her personifications attractive to all, and draws frequent [illegible] from the audience. Waldron, as Cardinal Wolsey, seemed to have a true conception of the part. Of course the whole troupe are not "Stars," and while several parts, as generally played, afford an efficient support to the principal characters, there are several others, we need not name, that almost burlesque a play. The wonder is not, however, that there are a few imperfect characters, but that at this remote place we find so many that possess excellence.

"A." Ward Revivified.—Through the agent, Mr. James W. Ward, we have received an advance copy of the "Cyclopedia of Commercial and Business Anecdotes." We cheerfully say it is a work that should find a place in the Library of all our citizens. Neatly bound, elegantly illustrated and brim full of solid reading matter and mirth-provoking literature. We fully endorse the notice published some two weeks since, after a review of it, and trust that Mr. Ward will meet with the success which the real merit of the book entitles [illegible] should. The city will be canvassed during the next ten days, and any one desiring the work, that may not be called on, can find the "said Ward" at the Western Hotel, corner of First and Morrison streets.

Out again.—The steamer Cowlitz, of the Cowlitz Steamboat Company's line, was out in her new dress yesterday, and looked as fresh as paint and varnish could make an old boat, as she [illegible] be termed. The speed of the craft has been materially increased, and she will be made more efficient than ever before. We observe Capt. Thayer, who brought out the Pan Pan, about a year ago, at the wheel.

Mustered Out.—A Company, Oregon Cavalry, were mustered out of the service at Fort Vancouver yesterday, we understand, having served to the expiration of their term. They have lately been employed at the new post Fort Boise in Idaho Territory.

Auction Sale.—The regular auction sale of Mr. A. B. Richardson to-day, will consist principally of articles in the Grocery and merchandize line.

Brig.-Gen. James G. Spears has been court-martialed, and sentenced to be dismissed the service, for using disloyal language. His sentence has been approved by the President. He voted a Mac with a will.

John [illegible]—the former proprietor of the huge warehouse now used and known as the Libby Prison, Richmond, is a refugee from the Confederate [illegible]. He had long been suspected of disloyalty to the rebel cause.

That Fraud.—The telegraph says seven regiments gave McClellan 1,881 votes and Lincoln, 119. What regiments? What commander permitted his men to vote thus as they pleased? Who transmitted the news? Why is the telegraph permitted to use its lightning in that way? Why didn't it strike the operators? Are we freemen? Are we in the United States?—Statesman.

Discharged for his Vote.—We are informed by [illegible], foreman of the Union Foundry of [illegible]—Williams, Hillbrook & Driscoll, [illegible]—that he has been discharged from his position by that firm because he voted for Lincoln and Johnson, on election day. Several workmen have also been discharged by this firm for the same offense.—Cal. paper.

E. Hannah, a defaulting and absquatulating Cariboo merchant, was arrested on the outgoing steamer one day last week, at the instance of E. [illegible] Fiske of the Bank of British Columbia, who is a large sufferer by the swindle. He had some $9,000 in his possession when arrested.—Statesman.

Allison's Ranch, California, which is said to have a population of not over 125, gave McClellan 327 votes to one for Lincoln. What awful fellows these Lincoln abolitionists are for fixing up fraudulent returns! Are we in the United States?—Statesman.

Modern Improvements.—If we purchase a house to live in, we are sure to want all the modern improvements, and, in a descending scale, in all our purchases we want the same. This fact applies with peculiar force to that important accessory to a household of the present day—a sewing machine. When our fair readers purchase one of these, they want one, of course, with the "modern improvements;" they want to embroider as well as sew with the machine, for they never would be satisfied to make their dresses on the machine, and then slowly put on the embroidery by hand. Nor need they, for with Grover & Baker's celebrated Machine they can do both; and with an ease and rapidity astonishing to behold.

A Greenback Case!

HAVING BEEN COMPELLED TO ACCEPT OF Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my hands one Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that

Jacob Mayer

Leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and it was understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly, under protest for the rent of the

CITY OF PARIS STORE,

Making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to convert a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. HOSTETTER'S

CELEBRATED

STOMACH BITTERS.

THIS OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and other secretory organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, recruits and purifies them. Dyspepsia in all its forms yields to its control and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure bile produce nutritious blood, and nutritious blood a healthy frame. Does the vast army of dyspeptics, [illegible] and disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the secretions and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and bring the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the feeble of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, may be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged!

In the decline of life, the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females:

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysterics, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all other disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlivens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS PARTICULARLY requested to the above favorite brand of Oysters. Messrs. McMurray & Co. claim to be the only firm that still adheres to the plan of opening the Oyster in its raw state by hand; thus preserving intact its native delicacy and flavor. The superiority of this method over the one in general use, of steaming the Oysters in bulk in order to open them, whereby the natural liquid is lost and a manufactured one has to be substituted, is apparent, and recommends itself to all who have given this brand a trial.

"Watch thou in all Things."

Be patient—life is very brief;
It passes quickly by,
And if it prove a troubled scene,
Beneath a stormy sky,
It is but like a clouded night,
That brings a morn of radiance bright.

Be hopeful—cheerful faith will bring
A strong joy to thee;
And make thy life a hymn of praise,
[illegible]
While [illegible] thou wilt bless,
And [illegible] others happiness.

Be earnest—an immortal soul
Should be a worker true;
Employ thy talents for thy God,
And ever keep in view
The judgment scene, the last great day,
When heaven and earth shall pass away.

Be holy—let not sin's dark stain
Thy spirit's whiteness dim;
Keep close to Jesus 'mid the world,
And trust alone in Him.
So, [illegible] business and thy rest,
Thou wilt be comforted and blest.

Be prayerful—ask, and thou wilt have
Strength equal to thy day;
Prayer clasps the hand that guides the world,
O, make it then thy stay!
Ask largely, and thy God will be
A kingly giver unto thee.

Be ready—many fall around,
Our loved ones disappear;
We know not when our call may come,
Nor should we wait in fear;
If ready, we can calmly rest,—
Living or dying, we are blest.

PROVERBIAL WISDOM.—A bank-note reporter would not naturally be looked to for words of proverbial wisdom, but Thompson's Reporter is responsible for the following, which will do well to ponder on during a hot day:

Don't have too much commiseration for the accomplished, amiable and charming wife of a defaulter, until you know that she has not by extravagance and pride, induced him to use money not his own, or to speculate with a view to gratify her wishes.

Don't think you are making a bargain when you cheat a customer, for in the long run all such operations will turn out quadruple losses.

Don't lend money at too great a shave, for the borrower must succeed, or he'll never be able to pay.

Don't neglect your regular business—thinking to do better at some outside enterprise; the chances are ten to one you will not succeed.

Don't go to law in a hurry; exhaust the legal remedies.

Don't be too smart; it is the instinct of man to give the extreme smart ones of both genders a wide berth.

Don't be as the dog in the manger, for some bull may give you a toss.

Don't judge until you have heard both sides of the case.

Don't get on stilts in prosperity, nor on your knees in adversity; for what goes up must come down, but what goes down don't always come up.

Don't condemn others for their inherited peculiarities, for could you but see yourself as you see others, your condemnation might come home.

A YANKEE STORY.—A sharp Yankee went into the shop of a dry goods dealer, down East, and thus accosted the proprietor—"Squire, do you trade?" "Considerable," was the reply. "I mean, do you dicker?" "Some; what ye got to dicker?" "A egg." "What ye want for a egg?" "Guess I'd like a darnin' needle." The required needle was dickered for the egg, and the Yankee was going away, when he turned and said—"Squire, do you treat?" "Well, I don't mind if I do," replied the good natured tradesman. They repaired to an adjacent tavern, and the usual Bourbon was produced. "Hold on," cried the Yankee, "my chist's weak, and I never could take whisky without a egg in it." The generous shopkeeper handed him the dickered egg, but without asking the needle back again. The Yankee broke the shell on the edge of the glass, when he exclaimed—"Geewillikins! this egg's got two yolks. Guess you must gin me another darnin' needle, squire."—Sala's Letters.

LAWS OF OREGON.

Acts passed at the Third Regular Session of the Legislative Assembly.

AN ACT to provide for the Adoption of Children.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

Section 1. Any inhabitant of this State may petition the county court in the county of his residence, for leave to adopt a child not his own, and, if desired, for a change of the child's name; but the prayer of such petition by a person having a husband or wife shall not be granted, unless the husband or wife joins therein.

Sec. 2. The parents of the child, or the survivor of them, shall, except as herein provided, consent in writing to such adoption. If neither parent is living, the guardian of the child; or, if there is no guardian, the next of kin in this state, may give such consent; or if there be no next of kin, the court may appoint some suitable person to act in the proceedings as next friend of the child, and to give or withhold such consent.

Sec. 3. If either parent is insane, or imprisoned in the State prison, under a sentence for a term not less than three years, or has wilfully deserted and neglected to provide proper care and maintenance for the child, for one year next preceding the time of filing the petition, the court shall proceed as if such parent were dead, and in its discretion may appoint some suitable person to act in the proceedings as next friend of the child, and give or withhold the consent aforesaid.

Sec. 4. If a parent does not consent to the adoption of his child, the court shall order a copy of the petition, and order thereon, to be served on him personally, if found in the State, and if not, to be published once a week, for three successive weeks, in such newspaper printed in the county as the court may direct; the last publication to be at least four weeks before the time appointed for the hearing. Like notice shall also be published when a child has no parent living, and no guardian, nor next of kin in this State. The court may order such further notice as it deems necessary or proper.

Sec. 5. If the child is of the age of fourteen years or upwards, the adoption shall not be made without his consent.

Sec. 6. If upon such petition, so presented and consented to, the court is satisfied of the identity and relations of the persons, and that the petitioner is of sufficient ability to bring up the child, and furnish suitable nurture and education, having reference to the degree and condition of the parents, and that it is fit and proper that such adoption should take effect, a decree shall be made setting forth the facts, and ordering that from the date of the decree the child shall, to all legal intents and purposes, be the child of the petitioner.

Sec. 7. A child so adopted shall be deemed, for the purposes of inheritance of such child, and all other legal consequences and incidents of the natural relations of parents and children, the child of the parents by adoption, the same as if he had been born to them by lawful wedlock; except that he shall not be capable of taking property expressly limited to the heirs of the body or bodies of the parents by adoption, nor property from the lineal or collateral kindred of such parents by right of representation.

Sec. 8. The parents of such child shall be deprived by the same of all legal rights as respects the child; and the child shall be freed from all obligations of maintenance and obedience as respects his parents.

Sec. 9. Any petitioner may appeal to the circuit court from the decree of the county court on such petition, in like manner as appeals may be taken from other decrees of that court, and any child made the subject of such petition may by a next friend appeal in like manner, but no bond shall be required or costs awarded against such child or next friend.

Sec. 10. A parent who has not, before the hearing upon a petition for the adoption of his child, had personal notice thereof, may at any time within one year after actual notice, apply to the circuit court to reverse the decree; said court after due notice may in its discretion reverse the same if it appears that any of the material allegations in the petition were not true.

Sec. 11. Applications for change of names of persons may be heard and determined by the county courts in the several counties. No lawful change of the name of a person, except a woman upon her marriage or divorce, shall be made in this State, unless for sufficient reasons consisting with the public interest and satisfactory to said court, in the county where the party resides.

Sec. 12. Before decreeing a change of name except as provided in the following section, the court shall require public notice of the application therefor to be given, that all persons may offer and show cause, if they have any, why the same should not be granted. The court shall also require public notice to be given of the change decreed, and on return of proof thereof, may grant a certificate, under the seal of the court, of the name the party is to have, and which shall thereafter be his legal name.

Sec. 13. If in the petition for the adoption of a child, a change of the child's name is requested, the court may on decreeing the adoption may also decree such change of name, and grant a certificate thereof without the notices required by the preceding section.

Sec. 14. Each Judge shall annually in the month of December, make a return to the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth, of all changes of names made in the court under this chapter, and the same shall be published in a tabular form, with the statutes of the following year.

Sec. 15. Inasmuch as there is an urgent necessity for a law in reference to the adoption of children in this State, this law shall be in effect from and after its passage.

Approved, October 24th, 1864.

AN ACT supplementary to an act entitled "An act to provide for the safe keeping of the insane and idiotic persons," approved [illegible]

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

Section 1. That the Governor of the State of Oregon is hereby authorised and appointed to make and enter into a contract with Doctors Hawthorne and Loryea for the safe keeping, care and medical treatment, of all such insane and idiotic persons as shall be sent to the insane asylum under any laws of this State; Provided, said contract shall be for a term of four years and six months; provided, further, that the amount for each patient per week shall not exceed ten dollars, until the number reaches and includes seventy five State patients, and then not to exceed the sum of nine dollars per week for each State patient shall be charged; and provided further, that if the number of patients increase so as to exceed one hundred and twenty-five, then only [illegible] dollars per week shall be allowed for each patient during the time such number, or more, remain in the asylum.

Sec. 2. The Governor shall take bond from the contractors, with good security, payable to the State of Oregon in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, conditioned to the faithful performance of the contract.

Sec. 3. Inasmuch, because of the near expiration of the present contract of keeping, as there is an immediate necessity for making a contract to provide for the safe-keeping and care of the insane and idiots, this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved October 1st, 1864.

AN ACT to provide for the ordinary expenses of the State Government, and other general and specific appropriations.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

Section 1. That the following sums be and the same are hereby specifically appropriated to the several objects hereinafter mentioned, for two years commencing from the first day of September, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Sec. 2. For the salary of the Governor of the State, three thousand dollars. For the salary of the Secretary of State, three thousand dollars. For the salary of the Treasurer of State, sixteen hundred dollars. For the salary of State Librarian, one thousand dollars.

Sec. 3. For the salary of the Justices of the Supreme Court, twenty thousand dollars. For the salary of the Prosecuting Attorneys, five thousand dollars.

Sec. 4. For the salary of Pilot Commissioners, seven hundred dollars. For the salary of the Adjutant General, sixteen hundred dollars. For salary of visiting Physician to Insane Asylum, eight hundred dollars.

Sec. 5. For the payment of the expenses of conveying convicts to the Penitentiary, eight thousand dollars.

Sec. 6. For the payment of the expenses of the Penitentiary, and for the salary of officers, twenty thousand dollars.

Sec. 7. For the purchase of grounds for Insane Asylum and Penitentiary, and for building Penitentiary, twenty-five thousand dollars.

Sec. 8. For the support and medical treatment of the indigent Insane and Idiotic, sixty-four thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

Sec. 9. For the Public Printing, folding, stitching and binding, thirteen thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

Sec. 10. For rents, stationery, lights, fuel, and other incidental expenses of the Legislative and Executive departments, seven thousand and five hundred dollars.

Sec. 11. For the payment of the per diem and mileage of Presidential Electors, one hundred and fifty dollars.

Sec. 12. To pay for newspapers for the Legislative Assembly, four hundred and fifty dollars, or so much thereof as may be necessary.

Sec. 13. The sum of ten thousand dollars is hereby placed at the disposal of the Governor, [illegible] be expended, at his discretion, for [illegible] the Militia of the State.

Sec. 14. For the salary of the Private Secretary of the Governor, twelve hundred dollars. For the salary of the Assistant Secretary of State, eight hundred dollars.

Sec. 15. For the payment to the Publishers, for printing proclamations of the Governor, and for blanks four hundred dollars.

Sec. 16. That all salaries herein provided for, shall be paid quarterly at the office of the State Treasurer, unless otherwise specified by law; that no money appropriated by this act for any specific purpose, shall be applied to any other purpose in any of the departments or objects of appropriation herein provided for.

Sec. 17. Owing to the public exigencies, this act shall take effect and be in force, from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved October 22d, 1864.

Proclamation.

STATE OF OREGON, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
October 24th, 1864.

WHEREAS, I have received a requisition from Major General Irwin McDowell, commanding the Department of the Pacific, acting under the authority of the War Department, for one regiment of Infantry, in addition to the volunteers now in the service of the United States, to aid in the enforcement of the laws, suppress insurrection and invasion, and to chastise hostile Indians in this military district;

Now, therefore, I, ADDISON C. GIBBS, Governor of the State of Oregon, and Commander-in-Chief of the Militia thereof, do hereby call upon the citizens of this State to organize themselves into companies sufficient to fill the foregoing requisition.

[L.S.] In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the State of Oregon to be affixed. Done at Salem this 24th day of October, A. D. 1864.

ADDISON C. GIBBS,
Governor of Oregon.

Attest: SAMUEL E. MAY, Secretary of State.

The following is hereby promulgated: The plan of recruiting and organizing the above force, will be as follows, until further notice:

RECRUITING:

The regiment will be known as the First Infantry, Oregon Volunteers. The field, staff and line officers will be commissioned by the Governor. The State will be divided into districts, according to the number of persons in each district liable to do military duty. When such district has furnished its quota of men, there will be no draft in the same under this call. Each district will furnish one company.

Commissions will be issued by the Governor to company officers, conditioned that they shall recruit their respective companies, and be ready to be mustered into the service, within a time hereafter to be named.

A company rendezvous will be established at some central point in each district, and, if practicable, all recruits will be retained there until the company is filled and ready to be mustered into service.

The State has provided by law for the payment of a bounty of $150 in State interest-bearing bonds, payable in gold to each volunteer mustered into the service, in addition to the bounties authorized to be paid by the United States. (See statutes 1863-4, page 486.)

The wages of a soldier, in addition, are $16 per month, besides clothing, equipments, rations and allowances, furnished by the United States. (See statutes 1864, page [illegible])

ORGANIZATION.

The proper organization and strength of a regiment of infantry is as follows:

One (1) colonel, one (1) lieutenant colonel, one (1) major, one (1) adjutant (an extra lieutenant), one (1) quartermaster (an extra lieutenant), one (1) surgeon, two (2) assistant surgeons, one (1) chaplain, one (1) sergeant major, one (1) regimental quartermaster sergeant, one (1) regimental commissary sergeant and one (1) hospital steward. Ten companies form a regiment.

COMPANY OF INFANTRY.

One (1) captain, one (1) 1st lieutenant, one (1) 2d lieutenant, one (1) 1st sergeant, four (4) sergeants, eight (8) corporals, two (2) musicians, one (1) wagoner, sixty four (64) privates, minimum, and eighty-two (82) privates, maximum, besides the non-commissioned officers.

Musicians may be enlisted in each company, who will be rated and paid as privates.

The following is the estimated

QUOTA OF MEN DUE FROM EACH COUNTY:

Jackson	55
Josephine	25
Curry	5
Douglas	50
Coos	12
Lane	61
Linn	70
Benton	41
Polk	40

To the County Officers:

Other States have filled with enthusiasm [illegible] every call that has been made upon them. The people have a very natural repugnance to a draft, under which every drafted man must serve or furnish a substitute. Under it there must inevitably be some cases of severe but necessary hardship. Opportunity is now given to avoid such a draft. The men are needed [illegible] consideration of patriotism and of State [illegible] pride required [illegible] vigorously the [illegible] of the State being the [illegible] State should avoid a draft, [illegible] of your county, through [illegible] and legal and natural [illegible] their rights and of their honor, [illegible] to respond to this appeal by [illegible] Call to your aid the assistance of [illegible] citizens of the county. Let every loyal citizen of the county understand, and if possible, [illegible] that he has an immediate and personal interest in the success of your efforts. Hold [illegible] meetings in your school districts and bring the matter home to every inhabitant. Funds will be needed [illegible] provided for by law. Let subscriptions be [illegible] county for that purpose, & preserve a record of the names of the donors among the archives of the county. In short, the Governor upon whom the requisition is made, expects and justly, that you will respond to this call upon you with an earnestness of purpose, which shall insure success. Due notice of the districting of the State will be given as soon as it can be made.

LE DOYEN'S
SARSAPARILLA, YELLOW DOCK
—AND—
IODINE ALTERATIVE
FOR THE CONSTITUTION.

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and repelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

Blood and Liver.

This valuable Medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER,
HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES,
NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, BRONCHITIS
DYSPEPSIA, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and [illegible]

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

AS A LITHONTRIPTIC,

it has no equal; being chemically combined with Iodine, it possesses in a high degree the power of dissolving stone in the Bladder, and gravels of the kidneys, preventing gravel formation and enlargement of the prostrate glands, irritation of the neck of the bladder, dropsy, etc.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH ST.,
New York, August 1, 1863.

Dr. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness and weak lungs, with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully,

MRS. O. M. DEVOE.

* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

* * * Thou wilt send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefitted by their use. Thy friend,

ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa.

* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.

REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which is daily increasing with the guests of our house.

SYKES, CHADWICK & CO.,
Proprietors Willard's Hotel, Washington, D. C.

* * * I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect.

G. W. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers Home, Cincinnati, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, of which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business.

H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c., all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff, for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.

"CONSTITUTION WATER,"

THE ONLY REMEDY FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS,

Gravel, Dropsical Swellings,

GENITAL DEBILITY, ETC.

THE ASTONISHING SUCCESS WHICH HAS attended this invaluable medicine renders it the most valuable one ever discovered. No language can convey an adequate idea of the immediate and almost miraculous change which it occasions in the debilitated and shattered system. In fact, it stands unrivalled as a remedy for the permanent cure of the maladies above-mentioned, and also—

DIABETES, IMPOTENCY, LOSS OF MUSCULAR ENERGY,
PHYSICAL PROSTRATION,
INDIGESTION,
SEMINAL WEAKNESS,
GLEET, FLUOR ALBUS,

And in every disease in any way connected with the disorder or decay of the PROCREATIVE FUNCTIONS. Persons in our community, if conscious of any weakness, should take the

CONSTITUTION WATER.

When the system is worn down by excess, weak by nature, or impaired by sickness, the unstrung and relaxed organization is at once reinforced, revivified and built up. Well may this celebrated medicine be called the

MEDICAL WONDER.

The stooping, trembling victim of depression and debility becomes a new man; he stands erect, he moves with a firm step; his mind, which was previously sunk in gloom or an almost idiotic apathy, becomes bright and active, and he goes forth regenerated, conscious of new vigor. The muscle reaches the CONSTITUTION itself, and restores it to its normal condition.

IRRITATION OF THE NECK OF THE BLADDER, INFLAMMATION OF THE KIDNEYS, AND CATARRH OF THE BLADDER,
STRANGUARY AND BURN-
ING, OR PAINFUL
URINATING,
CALCULUS, GRAVEL,
BRICK DUST DEPOSIT, AND MUCOUS
OR MILKY DISCHARGES AFTER URINATING.

For these diseases it is truly a sovereign remedy, and too much cannot be said in its praise. A single dose has been known to relieve the most urgent symptoms. [illegible] these, and you will ever give praise to

CONSTITUTION WATER.

Males or Females,

Are you troubled with that distressing pain in the small of the back, and through the hips? CONSTITUTION WATER will relieve you like magic.

It is well known that the Medicinal effects of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a Solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto-carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M. D.

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It acts upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS and GLANDULAR
SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr. Henry Anders, a Physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the science of the world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners. (See "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1860, page 76.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

ALLEN'S
LUNG BALSAM!

The Remedy for Curing

CONSUMPTION, COUGHS, COLDS,
Asthma, Croup,

Diseases of the Throat, Bronchitis, Pains and Oppression of the Chest and Lungs, Difficult Breathing and all the Diseases of the Pulmonary Organs.

ITS ACTION IS EXPECTORANT, ALTERATIVE, SUDORIFIC, SEDATIVE, DIAPHORETIC AND DIURETIC, which renders it one of the most valuable remedies known for curing diseases of the lungs. It excites expectoration, and causes the lungs to throw off the phlegm or mucus; CHANGES THE SECRETIONS AND PURIFIES THE BLOOD; heals the irritated parts; gives strength to the digestive organs; brings the liver to its proper action, and imparts strength to the whole system. Such is the immediate and satisfactory effect, that it is WARRANTED TO BREAK UP THE MOST DISTRESSING COUGH IN A FEW HOURS TIME, if not of too long standing. IT IS WARRANTED to give entire satisfaction even in the MOST CONFIRMED CASES OF CONSUMPTION. IT IS WARRANTED not to produce costiveness (which is the case with most remedies) or affect the head, as it contains no opium in any form. IT IS WARRANTED TO BE PERFECTLY HARMLESS to the most delicate child, although it is an active and powerful remedy for restoring the system. THERE IS NO REAL NECESSITY FOR SO MANY DEATHS BY CONSUMPTION, when ALLEN'S LUNG BALSAM will prevent it, if only taken in time.

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1 per bottle.
